

Moving Memories Productions

Contract for Video Taping and Producing

This Agreement by and between _____, hereinafter Purchaser, and Moving Memories Productions, hereinafter Producer, is a contract for services of videotaping and final production of the contracted event.

Purchaser has read the Standard Contract for Wedding Videography Services and hereby certifies all information supplied by Purchaser is correct and is referenced hereto and incorporated herein as if fully reproduced in this Agreement. Purchaser understands the information supplied by the Purchaser will be used in the final production and any errors requiring correction due to information supplied by Purchaser shall be billed separately and are the responsibility of Purchaser. Any errors in the final production due to Producer mistake shall be corrected at no extra charge to Purchaser.

Purchaser is contracting for and Producer agrees to video tape the event that is the subject of this contract on _____, 2007. Purchaser agrees to pay a deposit of half the estimated total at the time of the signing of this Agreement. Deposit is payable by cash, personal check, or money order (made to Moving Memories Productions) or major credit cards using the secure Pay Pal system (www.Moving-Memories.net). The balance is due one week before the event begins. Balance is payable by cash, personal check, money order or Pay Pal. Note: Check for balance due must clear before the event.

Producer shall retain the final, edited version of the event that is the subject of this Agreement for six (6) months after the completion date and extra copies may be ordered according to the Standard Contract that is a part of this Agreement. Requests for additional copies made later than six (6) months after the completion date shall be negotiated separately, are not a part of this contract and may be subject to an additional charge.

This constitutes the complete agreement and any contemporaneous agreements not reduced to writing and specifically agreed to herein are hereby null and void.

This is a binding Agreement and the parties agree any disputes arising as to this Agreement shall be determined according to the law of contracts in court of competent jurisdiction in the State of South Carolina.

Parties signify knowledge of and agreement with the contract by signing below.
